

Jay W. Granzow, MD, MPH, FACS
Professor of Surgery and Assistant Chief
Division of Plastic Surgery, Department of Surgery
Harbor-UCLA Medical Center

Friday, June 14

Title: Lymphedema Surgery, What Works, What Doesn't

Brief Outline:

1. Intro
2. Goals of Lymphedema Surgery
3. Limitations of Lymphedema Surgery
4. Importance of the use of a complete and integrated lymphedema treatment system for best results
5. Lymphedema therapy is a critical part of any lymphedema treatment system
6. The progression of the lymphedema disease process
  - a. Fluid predominant at first
  - b. Solid predominant later
  - c. How the above affects type of lymphedema surgery needed
7. The importance of proper patient selection for lymphedema surgery
8. Types of lymphedema surgery and when best used

Saturday, June 15

Title: Lymphedema Surgery from the Patient's Perspective

Brief Outline:

1. Intro
2. Brief introduction of lymphedema patients and their surgical history
3. Presentation by lymphedema patients about their experience with lymphedema surgery
4. Time for Q+A